

Imagine you are meeting a new classmate from Venezuela who has just started at your school. Your teacher will play the role of the student.

Tell the new student about

- some of your classes,
- and some extracurricular activities.
- Ask if the students would like to go with you to one of the activities.
- Mention at least three activities and three classes making some comparisons for the new student.